

Kim Jovinelli joined the museum on Dec. 1. She is responsible for the professional preservation, documentation, security and presentation of the museum's collection.

Jovinelli received her undergraduate degree in archaeology from Millersville University and a graduate degree from The University of the Arts with a concentration in collections care and management.

She was the assistant curator for the Delaware County Historical Society and a volunteer with Independence National Historic Park's National Park Service Archaeology and Collections Care and Management Department

